

Tom Mosher, 05:11 PM 6/29/98 , Re: T&E Mussels

---

From: "Tom Mosher" <TOMM@wp.state.ks.us>
 To: "Dick Neves" <mussel>
 Subject: Re: T&E Mussels
 Date: Mon, 29 Jun 1998 17:11:22 -0500
 X-MSMail-Priority: Normal

Kansas listed mussels are as follows

Endangered

Flat floater-Anodonta suborbiculata
 Rabbits foot-Quadrula cylindrica
 Western fanshell-Cyprogenia aberti
 Neosho mucket-Lampsilis rafinesqueana
 Elktoe-Alasmidonta marginata
 Bleedingtooth-Venustaconcha pleasi

Threatened

Rock pocketbook-Arcidens confragosus
 Fluted-shell-Lasmigona costata
 Butterfly-Ellipsaria lineolata
 Quachita kidneyshell-Ptychobranthus occidentalis

Species in need

Cylindrical papershell-Anodontoides ferussacianus
 Snuffbox-Epicoblasma triquetra
 Wartyback-Quadrula nodulata
 Spike-Elliptio dilatata
 Wabash pigtoe-Fusconaia flava
 Fat mucket-Lampsilis radiata
 Yellow sandshell-L. teres
 Washboard-Magaloniaias nervosa
 Round pigtoe-Pleurobema coccineum
 Squawfoot-Strophitus undulatus
 Fawnsfoot-Truncilla donaciformis
 Deertoe-T. truncata

Hope this list is useful.

Tom.

-----
 > From: Dick Neves <mussel@vt.edu>
 > To: Tom Mosher <TOMM@wp.state.ks.us>
 > Subject: Re: T&E Mussels
 > Date: Monday, June 29, 1998 4:14 PM
 >
 >
 > Thanks for the info. No, I don't have a copy of Kansas listed species
 >
 > At 02:29 PM 6/29/98 -0500, you wrote:
 > >Dick, None of our mussels are listed federally. Do you have a copy of > >Kansas listed species?
 > >Let me know if there is anything I can help with on the mussel front.
 > >Tom.
 > >
 > Richard Neves
 > Department of Fish and Wildlife
 > Virginia Tech
 > Blacksburg, VA 24061-0321
 > (540)231-5927
 >
 > A man hath no preeminence above a beast; for all is vanity(Ecclesiastes